Dear Parishioners,

I would like to thank everyone for your warm generosity and joyful spirits which made my first birthday celebration with all of you such a wonderful and memorable event this past week. It truly is a blessing and tremendous opportunity for me to be here serving all of you as your priest. I continue to count on your prayers and each one of you are most certainly in my prayers as well.

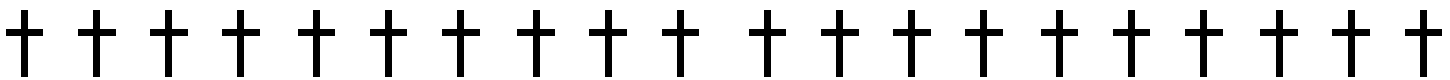

This past week we had a long-time parishioner, truly a pillar and exemplar of our community, Ida Faber, pass on to her eternal reward. Both her and Lee's extensive involvement with our St. Vincent DePaul center is one of the primary reasons it is such a thriving and successful service to the economically challenged and struggling members of our community. Let all of us truly keep Ida in our hearts most especially by allowing her example of putting her faith into generous practice influence and perhaps challenge us in our own lives of faith; is there more that we could be doing in our lives of service to God and to those around us, most especially the poor? Our prayers most certainly continue to be with both Lee and the entire Faber family.

This past week, Cardinal Francis George of Chicago, the president of the United States Council of Catholic Bishops, announced that the Vatican had officially approved the new English translation of the Roman Missal and that the new Missal will be released throughout the English speaking world the first weekend of Advent, 2011. What does this news mean for us? It means, quite simply, that the prayers that we have been saying at Mass since the early 1970's with the first English translation are going to be changed. The first translation was done very quickly and in many ways, did not accurately translate either the vocabulary or the spirit of the original Latin text. The new translation being released in 2011 will more accurately convey both the spirit and the actual text of the original Latin. The structure of Mass will remain the same, only the words will change.

A good example of the changes that await us can be found with the newly translated people's response to the 'Behold the Lamb of God'. The present version is "Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed." The new translation will read; "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed." This text comes from MT 8:8 and are the words of the centurion to Jesus when he asks our Lord to heal his servant. The new translation will accurately convey original biblical text while the present one we use is more of a paraphrase. The Archdiocese, our own St. Rose liturgy office and myself will all be working hard in preparing everyone for the new Mass translations.

In Christ,

Fr. Christiansen

Mass Intentions - Did you know?

There are several reasons why you might request a Mass to be said: in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person, or for the repose of the soul of someone who has passed away. If you would like to request a Mass, please come by the Parish office and we will help you.

RCIA Information

RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized, or were baptized in another Christian tradition, become members of the Church. We are beginning an inquiry session soon.

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, if you know someone who is interested, if you are interested in being on the RCIA team, or being a sponsor, please contact Robbie in the parish office at 425-4660.

CHILDREN & YOUTH FAITH FORMATION

The Faith Formation Team is holding registrations for all Children & Youth Faith Formation programs after all the Masses this weekend and also the weekend of September 11 & 12. This includes Religious Education classes for grades K-5, Sacramental Preparation for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist, and Youth Group for grades 6-12.

PARENTS OF FIRST GRADERS
Per the guidelines of the Archdiocese of Seattle, children need to have at least one year of Religious Education prior to entering the preparation for First Reconciliation and First Communion. Please be sure that your first grader is enrolled in Religious Education, either through the Parish or the School so that they will have met this requirement and are able to prepare next year.

What is Religious Education and does my child need to attend? This question is asked of us quite frequently in the Faith Formation office. Religious Education is an important part of your child's overall education. Passing down our Catholic faith to our children is one of the greatest gifts we can give to them. It is also a commitment we agree to upon Catholic Matrimony and when we have our children Baptized. A strong foundation of faith will serve them well throughout their lives and into adulthood. While all children are welcome and encouraged to attend Religious Education classes, it mainly serves those children in grades K-5 that do not receive formal Catholic Religious Education in school.

Please call the office at 425-4660 with any questions or comments about these programs.

St. Rose Dinner Club

Whether you are new to St. Rose or have been a member for many years, you are invited to join the dinner club and make new friends. We meet once a month October-May, except December, on a Saturday evening for dinner and fellowship. You may join as a regular member or as a substitute fill in if someone can't make it.

Please contact Tom & Martha Monahan at 414-1106 for more information.

Meet & Greets with Father Christiansen

The meet & greets are scheduled for Sunday evenings through October, then they will change to Friday evenings. The time frame will be approximately 5-8 p.m. The evening will consist of prayer, question & answer time, and conclude with a dinner. One person or couple will open their home and provide dinner for Fr. Christiansen, and approximately six additional people. The idea is to get a cross section of people with different activities, interests & backgrounds, not only groups of friends/families or people with similar interests at each meet & greet.

We will continue scheduling meet & greets until everyone has a chance to participate. Sign-ups to host or to attend an evening are in the Narthex or you may call the Parish Office 425-4660 for more information.

REFLEXION DOMINICAL- El Evangelio que escuchamos este domingo nos presenta dos máximas o enseñanzas de Jesús acerca de las actitudes que hemos de guardar frente al Reino de Dios y frente a los demás. La igualdad y la gratuidad. Sabernos iguales a los demás (no menos, ni más) nos ayudará siempre a no buscar privilegios innecesarios; por otro lado, cuando hemos percibido con sinceridad cuánto nos ha dado Dios y que todo lo que poseemos es porque los demás me han ayudado a tenerlo o porque Dios me lo ha compartido, entonces comprendemos la necesidad de nuestra gratuidad al compartir. Dos actitudes muy concretas para vivir el banquete del Reino, el banquete Eucarístico: identificarme con la misma dignidad que los demás para recibir al Señor, y compartir después todo esto con gratuidad, pues todo lo que podamos dar, primero lo hemos recibido gratuitamente.

¿Cuántas veces nos invitan a un banquete de bodas? La verdad es que todos los días somos invitados al banquete de bodas, es la boda de Cristo y su Iglesia (cada uno de nosotros) que se realiza todos los días en la respuesta fiel y generosa que cada uno de los cristianos damos a Dios en nuestros hermanos. Podrías imaginarte estar en un banquete de bodas todos los días, ¿cómo te vestirías, cómo te comportarías, cómo la pasarías? FELIZ! Feliz por la alegría que significa, feliz porque eres parte esencial en esta boda, en ella no hay nadie más importante que tu, pero tampoco alguien menos importante. Todos participamos como iguales del banquete de Dios, de su amor, de su gratuidad y generosidad. Todo el Evangelio es enseñarnos a vivir como personas para que podamos ser felices. Al fin y al cabo, si Dios nos creó fue para esta finalidad. Lo que pasa es que a veces nos despistamos y buscamos la felicidad por otros caminos, y Jesús quiere avisarnos para que no nos equivoquemos. Como en el evangelio de hoy, que nos pone en guardia para que no busquemos la felicidad a base de ponernos por encima de los demás. Una felicidad que viene de Dios. Una felicidad que consiste en hacer lo mismo que Dios hace: acercarse a nuestra debilidad, e invitarnos a vivir con él, en su vida. Nosotros también podemos hacer lo mismo que Dios, y seremos profundamente felices. Si realmente sabemos tener los ojos puestos más allá de nuestra familia, de nuestros amigos, y sabemos mirar hacia los pobres y los que no tienen nada, y sabemos compartir con ellos lo que poseemos. Son el camino para la felicidad que nos enseña Jesús. Ahora es precisamente él quien compartirá su mesa con nosotros. Para que crezca más nuestra felicidad.

Dear St. Rose Parishioners,

Sometimes the words "thank you" seem so inadequate.

It is friends like you who make the work of The Salvation Army possible and it is friends like you that make our community a better place. Furthermore, it is friends like you who make a difference in our society by caring for those who are without.

We count you as one of our special blessings, not just because of your recent gift of $500, but also because of your spirit of sacrifice and generosity.

May God Bless You,

Captain David Davis
Longview Corps Commander

Spirituality & Mental Illness: Guide for the Journey September 25 - 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

This retreat will invite participants to continue the journey of faith that often comes out of crisis, that taps down into our deepest desires, that evokes immense courage, and which ultimately leads us into the heart of Mystery. It will undertake a voyage of discovery. Drawing on themes from his book Reducing the Storm to a Whisper: the Story of a Breakdown, Father Howell will invite retreatants to a series of reflections and meditations about how God is working in their hearts even in the midst of crisis, turmoil, and the cry for healing and peace. Fr. Patrick Howell SJ serves as Rector of the Jesuit Community at Seattle University. For many years he has contributed to pastoral outreach to people with mental illness and their families.

This retreat will take place at the Palisades in Federal Way. For more information, call 800.330.7622 or palisades@seattlearch.org

Mission Statement:

The Mission of St. Rose is to foster a greater knowledge and love of God through the worship of our Lord, Jesus Christ; grounded in the celebration of the sacraments, education and faith formation, and service to the community.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Party with Angels

While the first reading from Sirach and the gospel focus on humility, "humble yourself...and you will find favor with God" (Sir 3:18) and "go and take the lowest place," (Lk 14:10) with a surprise reversal of the humble being exalted, the reading from Hebrews surprises us in a different way. The author uses apocalyptic images to show how much the relationship between God and humanity has changed. He starts with images of fire, storms, and trumpet blasts--Images that may remind you of an erupting volcano: Something you want to view from very far away. Even God's words brought fear and trembling.

It may not be surprising that God is beyond human comprehension, but Hebrews says "No." God doesn't want to be so far beyond us that we only approach in fear. Using more images from the end-time, the author gives us a picture of the baptized partying with angels and all the just who have died. And of course God is the host. Let's look at some of those images to see how our relationship to the Lord has grown.

The heavenly Jerusalem reminds us that the Church is our home. Not just your parish church building but the whole community of faith. How "at home" are you with your fellow parishioners? Do you regularly gather with that family for prayer? A church community can be a place to support those who are sick, or jobless, or depressed. It is also a place to be supported, to see God's love in action. The angels in Hebrews may be a symbol of that support.

The "firstborn" and "spirits of the just" could remind us of those who went before us and now rest in the Lord. They had their own struggles in life, and now live in glory. They help us to keep our true goal in mind, to remember what the meaning of life is, and to look forward to eternal life with hope.

Jesus came to show us how much God loves us and how close God can be. When he shed his blood on the cross (the final sign in our reading,) he renewed the covenant that God made with his people. So we no longer have to accomplish our salvation—it has already been offered to us by Jesus' death and resurrection. We accept that gift not just by a verbal statement of faith, but by a life lived as Jesus showed us, in love of God and our neighbor.
